Congratulations to Steve Zalinski

It is not often that one of our own members achieves the career landmark of retirement with 50 years of service in the tennis industry. Steve hails from a tennis family with both his parents achieving #1 rankings in the 1930s. Steve progressed through junior tennis to go on to play collegiate tennis at DePaul University followed by serving as Director of Tennis at a local club in his hometown of Chicago. He and his wife Kathy who also played tennis at the 4.5 level raised three daughters Kelly, Courtney, and Shannon who played collegiate tennis at Notre Dame, North Carolina, and Western Carolina. Steve advanced on working at various companies in the tennis industry. Accepting a job with Dunlop/Slazenger brought Steve to South Carolina where he established the Dunlop scholarship in 1992 which is awarded during the Palmetto Championships at Belton. Steve has brought to his various USTA positions a great service to the growth of 10 and under tennis through logging untold miles visiting clubs and coaches throughout the state. We wish him well as he enjoys his retirement.

Please join us in congratulating Steve for his many valuable contributions to South Carolina tennis as a worker and a volunteer. In recognition of his service, Steve will be inducted into the SC Hall of Fame in December 2017.
